

Introduction to The Post-Standard E-edition

presented by the Central New York Teaching Center

Central New York teachers who use the Post-Standard through Newspaper in Education now have the option of using a convenient and environmentally friendly format called an e-edition. This hands-on workshop will introduce teachers to all features of The Post-Standard e-edition. Learn how to navigate the e-edition and how to employ it and various display technologies in instruction. We will also offer details on Newspaper in Education programs.

Location: The Post-Standard
Date: July 22, 10:00-12:00
